Be Careful in Building that Home

POOR LUMBER means a cold crude house. After the first year it gets that cheap shabby look which makes it difficult to rent and difficult to sell. If you are building it to live in you want it a home that you will be proud to show your friends, and furthermore, you will want to avoid the big fuel bills always necessary where low grade lumber is used. We make a specialty of high grade lumber and 'classy' material that you will want to use. We have built up the largest retail business in Western Canada by being very fussy as to grades and selling just a little bit better stuff than you can generally buy elsewhere at prices as low as those asked for the inferior kinds. If your contractor uses CROWN LUMBER it means that he is a man who wants the best of everything. It is the best recommendation the man could have!

The Grim Reaper's Visit

This week we are compelled to take up a very sorrowful task, that of chronicling the sudden death of one of our widely-known and respected citizens. For some four years Isaac Stevens Hutchison has been a citizen of this town. As a partner in the livery business of the Palace Stables, he has become thoroughly known to everyone within a very great radius. His business dealings were characterized by such a uniform "squareness" that no word of reproach was spoken of him. Modest, no seeker of honors, satisfied to be plain 'Steve' he filled a place in the business life of the town that is only realized when that career is ended. Cheerful and optimistic as he always was, his influence has done its part in the development of the town of Claresholm.

Last Monday afternoon he with his motor-car, left town to drive a traveler into the country east. About 18 miles out the car became stalled in a water-hole. Sending the passenger to a near-by house for some means of extricating the car it is thought to be attempting alone to release the vehicle, he had strained himself in such a way as to cause heart failure. On the return of the young man to the hearse, Mr. Hutchison's lifeless body was discovered, leaning partly supported by the wire fence as if he had been overtaken and had fallen back ward against it. Nothing could be done for life had fled. Word of the death was passed in from an adjoining house and friends went out to bring the body back to town. It was very early Tuesday morning when the party with their sad burden returned to town. The friends of the deceased were notified and arrived on the noon train from Calgary.

The funeral was held at 4 p.m., yesterday afternoon. A very large number of his friends and acquaintances gathered at the home where the service was conducted by Rev. Wm. McMichael of the Presbyterian Church, and large numbers followed the funeral car to the C.P.R. depot where the remains were placed aboard the train for transport to Calgary. The floral offerings were many and testified to the warm friendships the deceased and his family have formed.

The late Mr. Hutchison was a native of U. S. and twenty-five years ago he left Oregon and took up a location near Calgary, in the Springbank district. Later he was engaged in the cattle business with R. G. Robertson. The late Mr. Hutchison was a partner with Charles Anderson and Arthur Robertson. He entered into the present partnership with D. B. Vanlora in Claresholm four or five years ago. He was married to Miss Jennie Mc-

Person some twelve or thirteen years ago and she with their three children survives him. The family were supported in the hour of their bereavement by the father of Mrs. Hutchison and other members of her family.

The deceased was not a member of any of the local societies nor an active church member, but preferred rather the quieter life of the home and this makes his death an even greater sorrow to his loved ones, who will miss the home-loving husband and father of whom death has bereaved them.

More of Cupid's Work

A quiet wedding was solemnized by the Rev. Wm. McMichael at the Presbyterian manse in Claresholm yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The occasion was the marriage of Dr. John McKay, physician in charge of the Frank Hospital, and the well-known nurse Miss Blanche Carnegie of this town. The pair were assisted, the groom, by T. B. George, manager of the Union Bank, Blairmore, and the bride, by Miss Whalley of Calgary. After the ceremony which was witnessed by a few of the friends of the young couple the wedding party were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Leorn at luncheon. The happy pair left for the coast last night and on their return will take up their residence at Frank.

FARMERS List With Us at OnceLocal Address Box 39 Claresholm, Alta.*A Word to the Wise

To anxious enquirers we would say that the letters G.F.J., as applied to us, do not mean Great Farm Journal but Great Family Journal. What we do not know about farming you can find in any reputable Farm Journal. What we do know about farming—well the less said the better about that. But in spite of all that, we are going to say a few things occasionally to some subjects of interest to farmers. And this is right from our shoulder, into time this fall to plow deep. This is a good year to try it for there has been so much moisture that the land has been rendered easier to plow and by plowing deeply a good supply of moisture will be stored up for next year's crop. No one can foretell how next season may average for moisture and it is wise to husband our present resource in any case.

Deep plowing will absorb more moisture when it rains and will retain the moisture thus absorbed longer. The top surface is bound to dry out so it is in the depth of the seed-bed the moisture must be retained. If the plowing be four inches deep and a couple of inches dry out the plant has but two inches in which to feed but if it is eight inches deep the earth is turned for a seed-bed there is six inches of food left for the plant. The moisture moves through the compact soil to the top surface should be kept loose and shut off the evaporation.

Now how should one go about the conserving of the moisture. We would suggest following the leader with the disc. This will loosen the top soil, check evaporation of moisture and kill the weeds that rely on a very large supply of water. This surface soil will hold enough water to pulverize thoroughly. Immediately after your plowing which should be as early and as deep as possible (by disc with the disc set straight). By the use of the disc the lower part of the plowed soil can be packed and the surface left loose as a check to evaporation. The lower part of the plowed soil being compact will serve to allow the moisture to rise from the subsoil to the plant for remember the greatest part of the plant food is absorbed from the plowed soil. Then in the spring as early as possible harrow or disc to break up the surface soil of the winter. The disc will perhaps be better than the harrow as it does not leave the surface in as likely a condition to drift. Above all do not use a surface packer as it pulverizes the clods and drifting ensues.

Special Session

A special meeting of the council was held in Mayor Milnes' office last Friday afternoon. The special business before the councillors was the opening of the tenders for supplies for the permanent dam. The Western Lumber Co. asked $651.60 f.o.b. at yard or $72 more delivered at creek; the Crown Lumber Co. wanted $690 at yard and $620 at creek while the Pioneer Lumber Co.'s tender was $470.00 at yard and $543.00 at creek. The council decided to accept the latter Co.'s tender at yard price and to transport the materials themselves.

Applications were read for the position of second engineer at the light and water plant. Among those offering their services were S. H. Carr, Calgary; H. C. Bailey, Lethbridge; Elling Johnson, Macleod; Robert Rice, Essex; G. H. Turner, Calgary; and Norman MacKenzie, Calgary. The latter's application was accepted.

An explanation of the low state of the water was made. A hole in the temporary dam, the result of the last flood, was the cause. It is the intention of the council to proceed with the building of the permanent dam at once rather than to repair the break in the present dam.

The resignation of Police Constable Morrison was received and accepted. His successor will be a man sent down from Calgary by Chief Mackie.

The new man is to report right away. The announcement is made that a crossing will be opened by the C.P.R. at 31st street instead of the D.E.R. St. north of the stock yards as expected. This will be of greater convenience to the townspeople than the more northerly crossing.

The Pioneer Lumber Co. have purchased the yard of the Alberta Lumber and Hardware Co. at Cardston and placed Charles Holmes, formerly manager of the company's yard here, in charge of that branch.

Outside

Brooks has aspirations to become a town. The fever seems contagious in the Province.

Byrons is to have a new school building. The government have authorized the School Board to borrow $5000 for the purpose.

The Veto bill, limiting the powers of the upper chambers of legislation originating in the House of Commons became a law last Friday the King's assent thereto being given through a royal commission in the House of Lords.

The people of Frank, Alta., sent a deputation to Edmonton last week to urge the matter of having a government commission appointed to investigate and prove to the world outside and to the citizens of Frank whether there is any danger of their mountain doing any more tumbling. Prof. Brock's recent visit rather alarmed some of them.

And now the Scotch want Home Rule. As a first step toward securing this a bill was introduced in the house of commons last week to establish a legislature in Scotland to deal with purely Scottish affairs. Surely the Scotch can do as well as the Irish are expected to do.

The provincial government have filled the position made vacant by the resignation of Sheriff I. G. Van Wart who has accepted the nomination to contest the Calgary riding for the Liberals in the Federal elections. Frederick M. Graham who has been for seven years assistant to the recent sheriff has been appointed in his place.

The national assembly has completed and signed the constitution of the Republic of Portugal. The constitution, which was outlined by the cabinet several weeks ago and since discussed by the elected representatives of the people, was adopted and seems of great enthusiasm. Great crowds surrounded the building where the assembly met, and waited for hours for the expected announcement. When this was received there were joyful demonstrations. There seems to be no general desire for a return to the monarchical system.

The body of Mrs. Thos. Pettigrew was found hanging dead in the kitchen of her home at Lion's Head, Ont., by neighbors last Friday and in bed upstairs were the bodies of her two children, strangled to death. The children were a boy and a girl, aged 10 and 12 years. From the condition of the house, it is evident that they were able to put up some sort of a struggle for their lives, but the frail woman finally overcame them, and by tying this piece of rope around their necks they were slowly strangled to death. The deed is thought to have been the result of insanity brought on by years of sickness.

Stettler, Alta. Aug. 19.—Word has been received that Harry Leavittington aged 29, residing on a homestead with his brother Ralph at Big Valley, had shot himself with a thirty-two Winchester repeating rifle. Corner Chatham, of Goodwin, with Constable Bailey, of Stettler, went down and obtained particulars, but no inquest was deemed necessary. Leavittington had been somewhat despondent, but it was thought he was better. He had just returned from milking at the time when he took his life. His head was almost blown off. His father and uncle, who are old respected residents, lived near him.

September 11th is Right

Last week in our reference to the anticipated coming of Mr. Gilmour and "The Mummy and the Humming Bird" we mentioned Sept. 9th, as the date. This announcement we had over Mr. Stuhler's signature but we have since learned that a change of dates has been made. We hasten to correct the error and announce the date for this attraction as Sept. 11th. In another part of this issue we give a synopsis of the play.

Buy it now. Now is the time to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. This remedy has no superior. For sale by dealers everywhere.

We strongly recommend Beall's Eczema Ointment, which possesses remarkable cleansing, antiseptic, germicidal soothing and healing qualities. It is a grayish-white emollient, with a pleasant odor, and very cleanly for use. It is intended to be applied with a piece of muslin or linen, or it may be applied and allowed to dry. It affords very prompt relief for pimples, blotches, discolorations, ringworm, acne, tetter, barbers' itch, ulcers, insect bites, nettle rash, hives, sores and wounds.

Beall's Eczema Ointment relieves itching and irritation of the feet. It is ideal for the treatment of children who are tormented with itching, burning and disfiguring skin diseases. Try a box at our risk. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Remember, it is only sold at our store—O. L. Retnecke.

THINK IT OUT

In pursuance of the recommendations made by the Council at its last meeting when Messrs. Milnes and Moffatt were appointed a delegation to interview Premier Sifton on the matter of the proposed line of the C.N.R. from Calgary to Macleod, the two gentlemen visited the Capital on Thursday of last week. They were armed with a large signed petition asking that the route as presented to the Railway Commission at Ottawa be approved. On the same day a deputation representing the farmers of the town living near the proposed route of the C.N.R. consisting of Messrs. N. Taitinger, E. Peck and Wm. Miller waited on the Hon. A. L. Sifton and urged their case.

It is to be regretted that, owing to misrepresentation on the part of some mischief-maker, these two deputations could not have seen eye to eye and united their forces for a common end. The interests of both town and district are in reality so closely interwoven that unanimity of purpose might easily have obtained.

The Clareasholm deputation very properly sought the Minister the great injury that would be done to this town if the route five or six miles east of Clareasholm was followed by this new road. The eastern trade is at present the greatest resource of the town, as the western section is not so closely populated and will not be for some time.

The natural result of the building of a road a few miles east of us would be to cause small villages to spring up within the present sphere of influence of the established towns on the C. & E. road. These towns would have to assume municipal burdens in providing the necessary public conveniences and the money that should be devoted to other more necessary improvements of a more than local value would be directed from its proper channels, toward an exhausting competition. This would eventually be felt by the farmers of the district for it is upon these as the primal producers that all such burdens indirectly fall.

The town of Clareasholm has already expended over $200,000 in improvements from all of which the country adjoining reaps its share of advantage and it would be detrimental to the entire district's interests if the town was to be done to the financial status of the district's market town.

It was further pointed out that an investment of some magnitude had already been made by the municipal government in the Clareasholm Farm established here and the government itself had become an interested party in the financial welfare of the town and district. The location of the Farm was the result of an acceptance by the government of the natural advantageous position of Clareasholm and anything that would impair the value of the location would be a provincial loss as well as a local one.

The business done by the C. and E. branch of the C.P.R. has been no inconsiderable part of the earnings of this company but past experience has shown that the company cannot meet to the fullest extent the demand made upon it to transport the product of our prairie fields to the market. Every year, even under past conditions, when the crop area was very limited, the car shortage caused a very considerable loss to the grain shippers. The fuel situation, had enough under the unfortunate conditions prevailing, is aggravated by the tax placed upon the carrying capacity of our own road. Relief could not be expected from the one north-and-south steel highway and another road becomes essential. When one has this situation called to the main extended western country served by the C.P.R. from this town than from any town on this branch and when together with this fact is placed that of the rapid development of that western district it becomes an unsalable argument for the entrance of another public carrying concern to this district center and should prove a very great inducement (Continued on page 7.)

THE FORUM

To the Editor:

Dear Sir:

In a few days we shall be placing on the market a townsite in the latter part of British Columbia known as Fort Fraser, and situated in the very center of the Province, at the junction of the Lower and Upper Nechako rivers and adjoining Fraser Lake.

We desire herewith to make plain to the public, through the medium of your journal, and at the outset we make no claim that this town is of locally a railway divisional point or any other premature assertion along the lines of transportation facilities.

So many really propositions, particularly townsites, have been placed before the buying public, most of them claiming official recognition from railway corporations as divisional points, etc., that we feel it is of fairly a railway divisional point to state our case as above.

The Fort Fraser property is being put upon the market not as a divisional point on the railway, but as a townsite situated in the center of a large agricultural district, and the nearest point on the railway to the old Hudson Bay Fort. We have implicit faith in the value of the vast surrounding farming and stock-raising country, of which Fort Fraser is the natural center.

These lands are being rapidly settled and opened up to agriculture, and with a close-by railway connection, navigable waters and other natural facilities, it is merely a matter of a few short years as local history has proven—before this section of the Province will become actually important, from various standpoints which we make a country prosperous.

Fort Fraser is distinctly and purely a central townsite in a large interior farming and industrial section, accessible at present by water and later by rail; is an open and unobstructed land proposition fully authenticated and is the only properly registered townsite under that name in which the local Government holds one-quarter of the lots.

We invite the public to co-operate with us in making it what we believe it will eventually become, the most important town in that district, as we have already the co-operation of twenty of the best known business men of Vancouver and Victoria.

Kindly publish this statement in order that our proposition, which we make in the pursuit of good faith, will not be misrepresented or misunderstood and closed among extraneous claims heard so often nowadays.

Yours faithfully,
Milnes & Noble,
Clareasholm.

Clareasholm, Aug. 17, 1911.

Dear Mr. Editor:

Just a word Mr. Editor in connection with an incident which occurred Fair day in our town and its probable consequences.

Our Mayor's car came down the street decorated with the Canadian and American flags. Neither one had precedence. The crowd applauded several Americans who stood by grained delightedly and remarked loudly that "the Mayor knew a thing or two," another said in answer "another step toward annexation."

Now Mr. Editor I am not a bigoted patriot, nor a one-sided man by any means. But I believe in reason and restraint in all things, and there must be a limit to this kind of thing. I question if the Mayor knew the decorations were there, and would willingly believe it to be the foolishness and rashness of youth, but this kind of thing will breed ill will later on, at a time when there will be sufficient quantity of this article and there is no need to precipitate matters. It is needless to say the least. It is also lacking in ordinary courtesy. I look at the matter in this light. When a man earns a good living in another country and takes out his papers accordingly, it follows naturally that he should be sincere in his oath and not flaunt another flag in the very obvious manner which I have described. Yours in cool observation, Justice.

Bagged Him

The members of the music class lately conducted by Wm. Moffatt, to the number of over thirty gathered at the house of Mrs. (Dr.) Stevens on Wednesday evening of last week to bid farewell to their teacher who is leaving in a few days for Leipzig, Germany, to pursue a more advanced course in his chosen profession. The evening was spent pleasantly and toward the close of the social festivities Mr. Moffatt was agreeably surprised by being made the recipient of a handsome leather travelling bag accompanied by an address of appreciation. The presentation was made on behalf of Mr. Moffatt's pupils by Miss Moir. The address accompanying the gift read as follows:—

Dear Mr. Moffatt,
Please accept a slight token of our esteem and appreciation of your untiring interest in us as a teacher and as you carry this bag on your journey may it remind you of our good wishes for every success in your chosen career.

Signed on behalf of your pupils by Ethel Cunningham, Pearl Gray, Eva Brenan.

Mr. Moffatt responded in a few well chosen words of thanks and those present forming a ring about their teacher sang "He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Tasty refreshments were served and the guests and their individual expressions of regret at the loss of their teacher, and hearty wishes for his success, the guests wished Mr. Moffatt "Bon Voyage" and dispersed.

The townsfolk re-echo the sentiments of Mr. Moffatt's class and feel that his loss in musical and social circles will be keenly felt.

She Looked Us Over

Mrs. M. C. Bayly, a well-known authoress of London, Eng., and staff of the publishing house of Routledge & Son, London, has been commissioned by the provincial government to write a volume on the provinces of Alberta which is to form a part of a world series published by her firm. She was in town Sunday looking for material from this section. By courtesy of R. E. Moffatt, Mrs. Bayly, accompanied by Messrs. Hotchkiss, C. W. James and Wm. Moffatt Sr. was driven out east and shown one of the large farms, that of T. P. Cillier, some few miles from town. Other interesting points in the vicinity were described to Mrs. Bayly and she will not neglect this district in the valuable work she is writing.

EARLY INVESTORS IN FORT FRASER LOTS AT FIRST PRICES MAKE THE BIGGEST MONEY

$100 INVESTED NOW Will Doubtless be $500 IN 3 YEARS

Why Fort Fraser is a Good Buy

FORT FRASER is located at the confluence of the Upper and Lower Nechaco Rivers in the very heart of British Columbia at the east end of Fraser Lake upon one thousand miles of navigable waterways. FORT FRASER is situated directly upon the main line of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway (trans-continental, from ocean to ocean) and occupies a position geographically, which commands the easiest and most economical outlet in every direction. FORT FRASER is the logical radiating point for at least ten railroads, now building or chartered or contemplated. FORT FRASER, through her rail connection with Prince Rupert, is directly in coast-wise communication with the entire world. FORT FRASER, through her rail connections, provincial, inter-provincial, and trans-continental, is in direct communication with all the eastern markets of Canada and the United States. FORT FRASER is the natural and only feasible Western Gateway for the outlet of traffic from the great Peace River country and the Northwest Territories.

What Other Towns Have Done

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., was a wilderness four years ago. Today it has 4,000 residents, is progressing rapidly and its property has jumped from $100 to $500 and upwards per lot. Business lots are the most valuable. CALGARY had only 4,000 people in 1901. Today it has 40,000 and its town lots, which started at $100 are now worth $800.00. EDMONTON with 2,240 people in 1901, and town lots quoted at $100, has now over 30,000 residents and its lots are sold for $500.00. REGINA which had a few over 2,000 citizens in 1901 and sold its lots at $100 has now 17,000 people and the same lots go for $350.00. SASKATOON had only 113 people in 1901 and its town lots were sold at $100. Today there are 15,200 residents and the lots bring $300.00. MOSJIEV had 1,558 people in 1901 with lots quoted at $100. Today there are 15,000 residents and the lots are selling $100.00. LETHBRIDGE had but 423 people in 1901 and its lots were quoted at $100. Today there are 12,000 people there and the same lots are selling at $250.00.

Some Comparisons

We have been compelled in this issue to correct a statement made in a previous issue where an incorrect date slipped past our hand. But now it is our turn to correct the other side. A correspondent writes us that he takes exception to that part of an editorial in our issue of August 17th, in which we stated: "The Liberals are standing the fabled in support of the reciprocal trade agreement with the U.S. The Opposition, save in the cases of a few John Herons, are out and out opponents of reciprocity." He says: "If you are not aware, you might learn, that in Brantford, Ont., Lloyd Harris is the Liberal candidate and opposed to reciprocity also. Mr. Gorman, of Welland, Ont., is running on a similar basis, which shows that there are some John Herons in the Liberal ranks, but which you cannot deny."

In the editorial referred to by our correspondent our purpose was not to criticize the opposition for their opinion but to point out the necessity and obligation of every man who calls himself a man to poll his vote on one side or the other on this great question of reciprocity. But now that the issue is raised by our correspondent's criticism, we desire to call the gentlemen's attention to the mistake into which his lack of information in this matter has led him.

It is true Lloyd Harris did not see eye to eye with his leader, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, on this important question. He had been elected by the Liberal vote of his constituency as a supporter of the Laurier government. He had defended its opinions in a mainly way on the floor of the House. He returned to his constituents and explained his attitude. Also, upon being given an opportunity at a convention held in Brantford on August 12th, nobly expressed himself, in part as follows: "I passed through the hardest crisis of my life when I voted against the Liberal Government. You for the honour you have done me. I don't deserve it. The only regret is that it is absolutely impossible for me to be your candidate. It is not right that I should be."

Contrast the manliness of a Lloyd Harris, who, holding opinions at variance with the policy of his leader, in defence of those principles boldly announces himself on the floor of the House when the question comes up for discussion, leaving his leader and personal friends know that he no longer depends upon the vote and efforts of his once follower on this question of public policy and a John Heron who remains silent on this question of public policy and by his silence gives the impression to his leader and to his constituents that he is in agreement with his leader who unalterably is opposed to the reciprocity pact.

Contrast again the principle of the man who considers it not to be right morally that he should again be the candidate of the supporters of a cause to which he was opposed, and the man who announces that he will contest this riding as a Conservative supporting reciprocity and who never flinches at giving by his presence on the public platform with his leader, a silent acquiescence to the policy of R. L. Borden is associated in his late role of this province and of the West. Our correspondent also mentions W. M. Gorman, the retiring member for Welland, Ont., as another party case in this most amazing situation we have here at home. In this case as well as in the case of Mr. Harris our correspondent is not well informed. On Friday, June 22nd, Mr. Gorman met his constituents at a large Liberal convention of farmers, fruit-growers and market gardeners, held in the town of Welland and for over four hours the members wrestled with them on the question of reciprocity in an effort to convince them that his stand in opposition to the pact was a logical one. His last speech is shown by the fact that at the conclusion of Mr. Gorman's arguments, the large convention by a standing vote and amid a most remarkable scene of enthusiasm, unanimously passed the following resolution: "That this convention hereby heartily endorses the reciprocity pact now before parliament and pledges itself to support the Government in carrying it into effect and desires to emphasize its continued and fullest confidence in the Government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier." Mr. Gorman is not a candidate of such a Liberal convention. At the Conservative convention held the other day, William Munroe was nominated as a candidate in Welland constituency against the advice of the leaders of the Conservative party who thought it a better policy to allow two Liberals, one for reciprocity and the other against, to fight it out alone. A convention is called for August 25th at which a Liberal candidate, who it is hinted may be the Hon. Mr. Harcourt, a former Minister of Education for Ontario, will be nominated as a straight Pro-Reciprocity Candidate. Where does one find any unity in this case when the Liberal cause (if not disgraced) is the product of the opposition supporters in this riding?

Sifton for Reciprocity

Edmonton, Aug 16. In direct conflict with the views of his distinguished brother, Hon. Clifford Sifton, Premier Arthur Sifton made a public statement to-day strongly favoring reciprocity.

He said: "I am an advocate of reciprocity chiefly because I think it is going to be a good thing for Alberta. I would stand behind any policy which would be of real benefit to our Province."

The Premier intimated that he would be prepared to take a hand in the campaign for Liberalism and reciprocity in Alberta when he has the executive work of his Government well in hand. He will also come out for Hon. Mr. Oliver's re-election.

A Valuable Report

The report of the Canadian Forestry Convention at Quebec has just been issued, and makes a volume of 100 pages, of addresses, papers, and discussions by Canadian and United States authorities on forestry and lumbering. All parts of Canada are embraced in the report, and all phases of the subject, commercial, educational, administrative, and protective are dealt with. The results of the sessions passed and changes suggested in the laws are included. Persons interested may receive a copy free upon application to the Secretary, Canadian Forestry Association, Canadian Building, Ottawa, Canada.

G. S. Lawrence representing a Vancouver firm who have extensive interests in Alberta and B.C. was in town last week. He inspected some land of W. C. Bowen's with a view to exchanging for B.C. property. Mr. Bowen is leaving next week for the Similkine Valley with a view to locating in B.C.

Clareholm Fair Prize List

In our last week's issue we were before going to press to comment briefly on the success of our Fair which on account of its postponement was by the croakers doomed to failure. In this issue we give a complete list of the prize-winners. The stock class of the Fair was won over the thousand mark and the gate and stand receipts amounted to over $500. Dr. Campbell of Piddis judged the horse exhibits. W. J. T. Haunert of Oils was judge of cattle, sheep, swine and poultry. G. R. Severson of Staveland, and J. A. Holden of Clareholm made the awards in grains, grasses and vegetables of which there was a most excellent showing and Mesdames Jas. Macleod and Mayboud were the judges of home industries.

The race programme was small and only four horses contested for the small prizes. J. R. Watt won the open running race, half mile with Ranch King securing the purse of $80. A. J. Platto also won a half mile, saddle horse race and secured the major share of the $20 purse, second money going to J. T. Heininger's "Fido." Platto also won the pony race, which a $15 purse figured. Dolly from the Stewart Ranch was second and Prince A. Shaw's entry, third. J. A. Gaudin's Brit was two of the three best in the 3-minute trot or pace. Buster Brown and Jay Kerwin dividing 2nd and 3rd money. The protest lodged against the winner is being investigated. In the Farmer's trot Brit again was first, Black Jack 2nd and Lucy 3rd. The Horse Committee met on Saturday to consider complaints about double stakes in the races were contrary to the rules. It was decided that where charges were submitted the parties should forfeit all prize money and be investigated. It is being considered by the officers of the Fair to supplant the committees next year by superintendents for each department. (Continued on Supplement.)

to the far-fighted men at the head of this new transcontinental line.

The competitive value to the farmers east of us of a second road has been overlooked in their consideration. Place a railroad owned by a rival concern out four or five miles and the competitive value is decreased. Have these two roads both bidding for business at one centre and the value of the competition is at once apparent. Every cent a farmer can get more for his grain carries a benefit to the town where he does his trading. Every cent cheaper the transportation of his products is made the producer and the purveyor to the producer gains correspondingly.

ly. Is not this of much greater value than a reduction of a mile or so in the farmer's grain haul? Again we fear another matter has been overlooked. Get a mental plan of the country before your mind's eye. Better still take a paper and pencil and draw a straight line east and west to represent the twenty-five miles approximately between the present C. & E. and the Kipp-Alberside line. Divide this line in two by a north and south line at right angles. At the point of intersection a village might spring up but necessarily dwarfed by the two already established towns of Clareholm and Gorman. Divide again the western half of this line midway and once more draw a north and south line at right angles. This would indicate the present proposed line of the C.N.R.

Did it occur to you that any railway town-sites on this line you have just drawn would not be directly east of Clareholm but north to divide distance on C. & E. to Staveland, say five miles, and south to divide the distance to Gorman, say four miles. If you live between Clareholm and the mid way point of the line you first marked draw lines to either of these north or south locations and knowing the municipal roads already in use compute the distances of the grain haul. Further go back to the original north and south line you first drew and say what about the 18 miles of country still not served by a road. To conclude this article which could not be made as full as desired because our space is limited we would like to say that we think the farmers of the department who presented their case to our premier clearly misjudged where the town of Clareholm stands in regard to this proposed road. It is our interest in town to further your interest in our tributary district. There is no real antagonism existing between us. We cannot cheerfully see our territory upon which we depend for our prosperity taken from us unless we can see a corresponding advantage to accrue from the proposed location of the new C.N.R. line. Put the line where a new district can be served even though it be twelve miles away and we are somewhat mollified but don't cut in to our ground with any disturbing element that we cannot be shown will benefit consecutively our district.

The C.P.R. must finish this part of its C. & E. the most profitable subsidiary to its main line it has in operation. What with the reasonable grade, the number of shipping points, the productive area and the proximity to coal deposits, it ought to be a most desirable part of its great system. A point such as Clareholm far enough from Calgary should afford a very desirable competitive point for a rival road.

THE FOREST FIRES

By Arthur Gultman, in Life.
Is this the Forest Primer?—that redoubt, hallowed cathedral Lifted by Nature to God, the solace and joy of His creatures. Health-giving, tranquil and strong, the source of beneficent waters, wooing the quickening rains, guarding the beautiful forest lands? This was the Forest Primer!—that roaring, devouring furnace Billowed and sheeted with flame, a pitiless, raging inferno. See! how the sentinel pines go down, while the red hearted cypresses. Greedily sweeps on the settlements, whirling in panic before it. Caribou, timber-wolves, deer, snorting and plunging and bounding Mangled with cattle and men, poured through the streets, where the houses Melt in the fury!—And now, nothing remains but the timbers Desolate, blackened and charred, heaped over smoldering beds. There let the fire weed grow, dropping memorial blossoms.

Only a camp-fire brand,—only a spark from an extinguished fire. One of the myriads blown daily and nightly at random.—Such was the predominant seed. Come, let us thrust out the harvest.

An ordinary case of diarrhoea can, as a rule, be cured by a single dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This remedy has no superior for bowel complaints. For sale by dealers everywhere.

Cuts and bruises may be healed in about one-third the time required by the usual treatment by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. It is an antiseptic and causes such injuries to heal without maturation. This liniment also relieves soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains. For sale by dealers everywhere.

"I suffered intensely after eating and no medicine or treatment I tried seemed to do any good," writes H. M. Youngpeters, Editor of The Sun, Lake View, Ohio. "The first few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets gave me surprising relief and the second bottle seemed to give me a new stomach and perfectly good health." For sale by dealers everywhere.
